MOUNT
VERNON
DISTRICT

July is the month of SUMMER! And, water is integral to our community, as the entire District is bordered to the east by the Potomac River, with many streams, creeks and waterways leading to the river. As you look for ways to stay cool this summer, here are ways to enjoy water and watersports in the District. Whether it is splashing in your local pool, fishing off your favorite pier or paddle boarding on Pohick Bay, it can all be found right here.

To the north, Belle Haven Park and Marina has a variety of boat rentals, including sail boats, jon boats and kayaks. It also offers sailing lessons and a boat launch, along with other park activities like hiking trails and picnic areas. Boating from Belle Haven provides a unique opportunity to explore the wetlands of Dyke Marsh. From Belle Haven, you can travel by bike, car or foot down the Mount Vernon Memorial Trail to George Washington's Mount Vernon, with many parks and resting areas along the way to stop and take in the beautiful views of the Potomac River. You can also visit the Estate by boat, or stop by the boat launch while strolling the Estate.

The southern end of the District offers even more water access, with Pohick Bay Regional Park offering boat rentals, a boat launch and Pirate's Cove Waterpark. Take a picnic and visit for the day, or pack your tent and camp for the weekend! Round the Mason Neck peninsula and you will find one of the best known eagle sanctuaries, Mason Neck State Park. Fishing and a car-top boat launch are available here, in addition to bird watching, kayak and canoe rentals. At the southern gateway to the County, Occoquan Regional Park is the newest gem in the area. Recently renovated, the Occoquan Park features the new River View event center and the Brickmakers Café with stunning views of Occoquan River, a boat launch and boat rentals.

Of course, throughout the District outdoor enthusiasts and idyllic strollers, alike, can hike or walk along our many waterways, like Little Hunting Creek, Dogue Creek, Accotink Creek, Pohick Creek and the Occoquan River. River Farm, Fort Hunt Park and Riverside Park offer additional opportunities to recreate along the Potomac River. For tips on water safety, click here.

I encourage you to take time this summer to visit these wonderful ecological resources to bask in the wind and the sun, to feel the peace and tranquility a day on the water brings on our fabulous waterways!

Respectfully yours in public service,

Dan Storck
Supervisor, Mount Vernon District
Fairfax County Board of Supervisors

Metro Summer Closure Update

Platform Improvement Project Update

June 26 - At Huntington Station, demolition of the inbound and outbound platform edge is complete, and the formwork and rebar are being installed. The first concrete pours for the inbound platform edge started this week and pours for the outbound side will begin next week. All platform paver tile has been demolished. In addition to the platform work, demolition of the south mezzanine skylights has begun.

George Washington Parkway Safety Study Update

The National Park Service (NPS) and Federal Highway Administration are studying the safety at intersections on the southern section of the George Washington Memorial Parkway and are inviting the public to participate in the process.

The study will focus on intersections between the City of Alexandria and George Washington's Mount Vernon. During the upcoming public engagement process, the NPS and FHWA will share recently compiled safety data from the southern part of the parkway and ask people to share their concerns or ideas about how to improve safety while protecting the parkway's beauty and historic character. The intent of the study is to develop recommendations to improve safety that can be implemented using existing funds while preserving the parkway's historic appearance. Read more...

Stempson House Update

A little more than a year and a half since moving into the Stempson House, Resident Curator Steve McCullough recently hosted an open house to show the progress he has made. While essential repairs like electrical, plumbing and sewer connections were done prior to his occupancy, Steve has continued to make significant updates to the home, in keeping with the historic renovation of the former Lorton Prison warden's house. Renovations to date include: refinishing hardwood floors and a full bath; painting the fireplace and hearth; installing a refurbished wood stove; new kitchen cabinets, appliances and tile floor; converting a half bath to a pantry; resurfacing and painting plaster walls and ceilings; landscaping and exposing original brick walkways, to name a few. Check out Steve's Facebook page for more info and photos. Huntington Levee Celebration

Thank you to the 150 community members, local businesses, elected officials and County leaders who came out to celebrate the completion of the Huntington Levee and improvements to Farrington Park on Saturday, June 15. It was my pleasure to welcome everyone and to thank former Mount Vernon District Supervisor Gerry Hyland for getting this project funded, planned and built to protect the Huntington neighborhood.

It was great to see so many Huntington residents and a beautiful day to celebrate. We heard many stories, especially about no longer having to worry about flooding in homes and streets. One resident reported savings of approximately $2000 for her annual flood insurance bill as a direct result of the completion of the levee.

A special community tribute recognized Alan Ruof and Elaine Butkiewicz for their vigilance and activism to educate not only the Huntington community about the public works project process, but also the whole of Fairfax County as to the importance of supporting the bond referendum to construct the levee. As a result, in 2012, Fairfax County residents voted overwhelmingly to approve a $30M bond measure to build the levee to protect this neighborhood from future flooding. Affordable Housing Projects Partially Funded in Mount Vernon

Years ago, there was a trailer park, a Shakey's Pizza and the Brooks Motor Lodge along Richmond Highway across from Lockheed Boulevard. One by one, those businesses closed and the 22-acre trailer park area sat vacant for several years. Now it's the planned site of the Residences at North Hill, a mixed-use development that will receive partial funding from an $11 million in Affordable and Special Needs Housing loan allocation from the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Arden, closer to Huntington Metro, will receive funding as well. New Helicopter Noise Study Coming

Washington-area residents have long complained about the impact of helicopter noise on their neighborhoods, but data about the flights, flight paths and which neighborhoods are most heavily impacted has been hard to come by. That may now change. The Government Accountability Office at the request of lawmakers from the District, Maryland and Virginia, said it will study the issue starting this fall. The GAO did not say how long it would take to complete the study. Read more in the Washington Post...

Lukens Lane 7-Eleven Makeover Recommended for Approval

Staff from the County's Department of Planning and Zoning have signaled support for 7-Eleven's proposal to redevelop the Lukens Lane 7-Eleven into a larger, modernized store with gas pumps. The county released a staff report last week on the company's request, which envisioning a new 4,500-square foot 7-Eleven with six pumping stations (a total of 12 pumps). Originally 7-Eleven had applied to have eight pumping stations, but the county asked for a reduction, according to the staff report. Read more on Covering the Corridor...

Community Champion

Most mornings at the Key Center School, Mr. Lee Jost is bombarded with questions as he walks through the halls. "Could you modify this wheelchair?" "Can you repair one of my toys, please?" "How can we improve our students' interactions with the world?" Jost, the school's "Mr. Fix-It," has been a fixture at the center for 22 years.

Jost's volunteer work is crucial at the Key Center because of the school's mission to support children and teens with disabilities. Students at the center rely on a variety of devices and assistive technologies to interact with the world and with Jost's help, the equipment is well-maintained.

Initially, Jost was hesitant about volunteering and worried that he didn't have the medical background to help students. The children at the Key Center School have a variety of physical and intellectual disabilities that can challenge any volunteer. Jost commented, "For a teacher to excel here, it takes a very, very special person." Despite his concerns, Jost found that he could help by becoming "Mr. Fix-It" and grew to love the students. "Over time, I've gotten very close to many students," Jost said. "I've had a lot of fun in my life, but [volunteering at the Key Center] is the most satisfying thing I've ever done." Read more...

Smart Phone Donations Needed

The Artemis House Region I Domestic Violence Shelter opened earlier this year in Southern Fairfax County. Recently, a need was identified for smart phones for shelter residents. As a result, all County Board offices are collecting used smart phone donations. We have set an initial goal of 110 smart phones for the 90 beds in Fairfax County, with an extra 20 back up phones. This need is strictly for smart phones as they have the ability to access the internet and provide safety capabilities, as older flip phones do not. The donated smart phones will go directly to Shelter House, who will ensure the phones are wiped clean of personal data and made ready for shelter residents' personal use. With our engaged and caring community, we know we can reach this target in a matter of weeks. Please drop your donation off at the Mount Vernon District office today!
