

Thanks for considering a stay at Burke Lake Park. We look forward to hosting your camping experience. While setting up a tent and relaxing with friends and family around a campsite is often the perfect getaway from busy routines, we want to offer you a bit more. Make that reservation and extend your stay, because we've got you covered with specially discounted activities exclusively for registered campers.

- Looking forward to an evening around the campfire? Our Campground Essentials bundle will cover the basics with three bundles of firewood, a fire stater kit, s'mores sticks for your group and a s'mores kit.
- For campers looking to fill both their nights and days with activities, the Park Ambassador bundle includes everything in the Campground Essentials package plus free amusements and boat rentals at the marina, and discounts at Go APE! aerial adventure course at South Run District Park (3.5 miles from Burke Lake Park).
- If your interests are more focused, try the Captain's Choice marina package and the Movers and Shakers amusements package. Both bundles focus on one area of interest and include food discounts.

Make your camping experience more memorable with discounted amusements, activities and supplies.

Camp and Play Bundles Procedures

Purchase: Camp and Play Bundles are available for purchase through the FCPA online reservation system. Bundles may be selected and added to all campground reservations. The packages do not include campsites reservations and must be made in addition to a campground reservation. Camp and Play Bundles are only available to registered campers. Campers may purchase a bundle at the site at any time during their stay.

After purchase: After completing the purchasing transaction, you will receive an email confirmation of the purchase with a link to a website on receipt.

At the site: Check in upon arrival. You will be issued a physical pass that entitles a party of up to six people access to the benefits of the bundle plan. An information brochure is available upon request. QR codes will be made available for you to quickly access the Camp and Play Bundles website where you will find activity descriptions, procedures, rules, and maps.

Redeeming your benefits: Camp and Play Bundle pass holders may want to call in advance to ensure availability and capacity for the time and activity of your choosing. When pass holders arrive at the facility associated with each activity, check in at the cashier window. The identified service or activity will be processed like a normal transaction, and the appropriate discount will be applied to the purchase. Note: some discounts are a one-time discount that cannot be used more than once. These one-time discounts will be marked off the Camp and Play Bundles pass by park staff when users check in for the activity or service. Each pass will expire seven days after the associated campground reservation ends. An expiration date will be noted on the pass, and all discounts will expire at 11:59 p.m. of the indicated date.

Expiration: Passes will expire seven days after redemption.

Refunds: Passes are nonrefundable after they are physically issued. Lost or stolen passes will not be eligible for refunds.
